BOOSTING HOOVER

A Redwood City branch of the Hoover Republican Club of California will be formed in Redwood City next Tuesday night. The meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the Drew building and will be called to order at 8 p. m. All Hoover boosters are earnestly requested to be present. A good, live Hoover club can be formed in Redwood City that can help to bring Herbert C. Hoover and his great work before the voters of this city.

The place—Chamber of Commedce.
The date—Tuesday, April 20.
The time—8 o'clock p. m.
We want you!

Fred Becker and his sister, Mrs. Ralph Ruppert, left Tuesday for Sutter county to spend a few weeks with their sister,r Mrs. Joe Compton.

A. S. Liguori and Attorney F. A. Reynolds, delegates to the grand parlor of Native Sons, will leave today for San Diego to attend the convention that meets Monday. They will be accompanied by Milton Marcus, first alternate.

CHORAL SOCIETY HOLD ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

A most enthusiastic meeting of the Redwood City Choral Society will be held the latter part of April when songs will be sung, from the simple melodies of the south, to the more classical selections of opera. The progress being made under the direction of Captain Davies is truly remarkable and the members of the society are elated at being able to retain such a wonderfully efficient leader. To such an extent has the choral progressed that they feel qualified to show the public what they have been doing and to that end propose to give a concert somewhere around the middle of May, when the people of Redwood City will have an opportunity of judging for themselves just what has been accomplished.

Those who are contemplating joining the choral should be present at the Congregational church parlors next Tuesday evening, as by so doing they will have an opportunity to participate in the concert, but could not be taken in later on account of the shortness of time left for rehearsals.

A choral society is a splendid thing for any community, particularly when guided by such a leader as Captain Davies has proven himself to be, and it is hoped that all music lovers will avail themselves of the opportunity offered to join up next Tuesday night. Come anyway and see what we are doing, if you don't want to join up then, you don't have to, but come anyway.

On April 12th the San Mateo choral will give a concert in the Regent Theatre at San Mateo, when the soloist, for the occasion will be Mr. K. Attl, the famous harpist of the San Francisco Symphony.

If you enjoy good music, go to San Mateo on the 12th and then come to the Redwood concert in May where we should do our very best to excel even the concert given by San Mateo. Boost your choral along folks, its a good thing for the community. Don't forget next Tuesday evening at 7:45. Congregational church parlors.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

The Universal Film Company of Los Angeles took a motion picture scene of the old Selby home, ground and woods yesterday. Fourteen people participated. The picture is to represent a scene in old Virginia for a new southern motion picture play. The concern traveled all over California to find a suitable scene for the play, but found none that excelled the old Selby property on the highway near town.

Depositions were taken in the A. A. Newman will contest before Judge Griffin, as a notary, on Thursday. J. V. Neuman and Grover Neuman stated that their brother was competent prior to September 16, 1916, when the will was executed. James V. Neuman refused to state whether or not his brother gave him any money or property after that date. The case was then continued until next Thursday.

The progress of work on the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's new building on Broadway was retarded this week on account of a strike at the Pacific Manufacturing Company's plant at Santa Clara, which concern is to furnish the mill work for the structure. The building was to have been completed on May 1, but this setback will cause the time to be extended. The men at the mill are being paid $7.50 a day, but are striking ofr $8.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L Lesseman and daughters, Jean and Nina, are occupying their Redwood Highlands home after an absence of about a year. Mrs. Lesseman and the girls have ented young ladies have been studying for the movies.

Miss Florence Misner arrived yesterday from Los Angeles for a week's visit at the Alex. Wilson home on Mound street. Miss Misner is assistant manager in her brother's cafeteria in Los Angeles. She was formerly a teacher in the Redwood Central school and has hosts of friends here who are delighte dto see her.

Attorney Hall C. Ross left hurriedly for the east the fore part of the week on legal business. He expects to be gone for over a month.

Ray Lyon, the popular assistant district attorney, has gone to Eureka, Humboldt county, on legal business and will be absent for several days.

Wednesday evening the many school friends of Miss Luella Behrens gave her a shower at the home of Miss Edna Christenson on Main street. Miss Behrens was the happy recipient of numerous gift and hearty congratulation. The date of the young lady' wedding is set for April 28 at the home of the bride's parents. It will take place on the spacious lawns al fresco.

HIRAM W. JOHNSON

"I am for Johnson because he is four-square to all winds that blow; he is his own master at all times."

U.S. Senator William E. Borah of Idaho.

ROUSING JOHNSON FOR PRESIDE MEETING AT SAN MATEO FRIDAY

A public meeting of the San Mateo County Johnson for President Club will be held at the high school auditorium, San Mateo, Friday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock.

The meeting will be addressed by the well known and brilliant speakers, Hon. J. J. Dwyer and Thomas J. Lennon. Mr. Lennon is a prominent member of the American Legion and an overseas man. Mr. Dwyer is a distiguished San Francisco attorney. The San Mateo county band will furnish music.

The people of this county have heretofore shown their faith in Senator Johnson. They have recognized and followed his leadership and realize that he will accomplish for the nation the same splendid things that made his record as governor so notable.

Hiram W. Johnson has ever held high the torch of liberty and the claims of true Americanism. He has ever been an advocate of the government of the people, by the people and for the people. No influences, save right and justice, can sway his action. He has ability, energy, judgment. He has ever dared and will dare to do right and be true. We need just such a man at the head of our national government.

PRAISES FROM H. S. HERSHMAN

Mr. M. J. Knox, president of the Chamber of Commerce, on Thursday received the following telegram from Congressman H. S. Hershman which is self explanatory:

Washington, April 14, 1920—Mr. M. J. Knox, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Redwood City, California: I wish to congratulate your Chamber of Commerce and the citizens of Redwood City on the splendid progressive spirit which is indicated by your bond election.

CONGRESSMAN H. S. HERSHMAN

SALE OF PUBLIC PROPERTY

The board of Trustees of the Ravenswood School district, San Mateo County, California, invite sealed bids for the old school building, including out-buildings, sheds, fence posts, etc. in the school grounds in North Palo Alto.

Bids will be opened at the new Ravenswood School on Saturday evening, April 24th, at 8 o'clock. A certified check for 10 per cent of bid must accompany each bid. The board reserves the right to reject bids. Bids to be sent to Amos A. Davis, clerk, Menlo Park, Box 75, D. R. 1.

MAY DAY CELEBRATION

The May Day celebration committee met last Wednesday night and everything is now in readiness for the biggest day that Redwood City has ever had. It is expected that ten thousand visitors will be in Redwood City on May 1, as there will be big doings, such as a big parade, 38 flying machines, destroyer with 150 men and band will land at the municipal dock, jitney dance and plenty of music, so that everyone can't help but shake a leg on that day.

The prize of a aeroplane ride for the best slogan written in connection with the May Day celebration was won by Mrs. Eric Thompson. The slogan that won the first prize was:

"Dance, fly and be gay
In Redwood City, May Day."

Mrs. Frank Towne, Sylvester Douglas and Clifton Woodhams were the judges in the contest.

Lila Elizabeth Stone, one month and five days old, daughter of Charles Stone, the station agent at Palo Alto, passed away at the Children's Hospital in San Francisco on Sunday. The death of the little girl is extremely pathetic. Her mother died on March 2, just 18 days after the birth of the child. The heartbroken father clung to the girl as his only comfort and when she, too, passed away he became almost unconsolable. Mr. Stone was formerly the agent at Redwood City.

It pays to advertise. The Redwood City Shoe Store at Five Points had a large stock of shoes to sell and three weeks ago the concern placed an advertisement in these columns and in that time the entire stock of 1,300 pairs of shoes was disposed of ,together with the building. We repeat, it pays to advertise.

CHAUTAUQUA COMING WITH HIGH-CLASS ATTRACTIONS

The first announcement of the 1920 Chautauqua program indicates that the attractions to be presented are of the same high standard which has characterized Ellison-White programs in the past. Music, lecture and entertainment lovers aparently have much in store for them during the week of Chautauqua.

Lectures of prominence are: Judge George D. Alden of Massachusetts; Judge Fred G. Bale of Ohio; Carlton Chamberlayne, prominent editor of New York: Julius Caesar Nayphe, a brilliant young Athenian with a spectacular costumed lecture on the Orient; G. Whitfield Ray, F. R. G. S., for fourteen years on exploration work in South America, and E. B. Fish, the famed foe of agitators in the Northwest.

A feature attraction which varies from the regular line of Chautauqua events is the production of the big New York Dramatic success, "Kindling," by the Maurice Brawne Players on the fifth night. After several years of band concerts this will undoubtedly be a welcome change to most Chautauqua "fans."

The music gives promise of an interesting week. Mary Adel Hays, the New York soprano whom Ellison-White brought to the South and West in 1919, is to return again This year she comes as soloist with Raul Pereira, the Portugese violinist and his string quintet. An outstanding musical event rests in the announcement of the Royal Welsh Lady Singers of Wales, Great Britan. This company has toured the world and is a sterling singing organization.

On the second day a native Alaskan girl who has set the musical world talking is presented in the person of Lona Laska a member of the Alaska Duo. The Parnells is another musical company coming with fine recommendations from the East.

The closing attraction of the week is a double program known as "An Evening in the South Seas," featuring a group of native Mori Singers, the only organization of its kind in Ameri ca, with a lecture on New Zealand by Leila Blomfield, writer and lecturer of that country, illustrated with official government views.

The Chautauqua will open here on May 25, and continue to June 1st.

Newell Ferguson and Mrs. Ferguson, who were married in Minneapolis three weeks ago, are in Redwood City visiting Mr. Ferguson's sister, Miss Janet Ferguson, and his aunt, Mrs. Lila Kirkpatrick. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson are much impressed with this section and may decide to make their home here. On Wednesday Mrs. Kirkpatrick entertained about twenty of her friends in honor of her niece. The afternoon was pleasantly passed ,bridge being the order of the day.

REDWOOD CITY WATERFRONT

The people of Redwood City are to be congratulated upon the result of the bond election held last Monday. The bonds carried by a vote of six to one. This result was attained by liberal advertising and a splendid co-operation by the people. The people generally were behind the issue, all working for the splendid result attained.

The San Francisco Bulletin of Wednesday afternoon pays Redwood City a neat tribute in the following editorial:

Redwood City is to be commended for its enterprise in voting a bond issue for a spur track to the water-front, thereby complying with the condition required by the Government before it nudertakes to dredge a channel to the municipal wharf.

The opening of Redwood City port to the largest of coastwise steamers promises a new era in the development of the peninsula. It is a practical step in the direction of that cheaper transportation that is the immediate hope of better rewards for our primary producers. Redwood City is the geographical center of the peninsula, and with adequate rail and water-front facilities should progress by leaps and bounds.

There is no valid reason why the southern arm of San Francisco bay should remain a vast expanse of water unbroken by the movement of shipping that would add to the picturesqueness of Santa Clara valley.

JOHNSON HOPES TO DEFEAT STRONG MONEY INTERESTS

California is to be made the battleground of the nation for the Republican presidential nomination. The cry is "anything to beat Johnson."

With the winning of North Dakota, the victory in Minnesota, and his sweeping triumph in Michigan, he has become the formidable people's candidate, and with the Wisconsin delegation leaning toward him to be followed by Idaho with Borah leading, and then Iowa's group headed by Senators Cummins and Kenyon, Johnson is menacing.

Then come the primaries in Nebraska, Montana, New Jersey and Oregon, where the people again will have a voice.

Johnson's progress has nonplussed the other candidates, has frightened the tremendous moneyed interests backing them. In California they see their chance. If Johnson can be beaten there, or deflected from his campaign in other states, his march forward is halted.

No one takes the Hoover candidacy seriously, no authority in or out of politics concedes him even an outside chance for the Republican nomination. But he offers the means for an attempt to break Johnson. Already the Wood managers have whispered of the assistance to be rendered him. Rumors of the big sack to be opened in California are now rampant. Every disreputable force in politics, every evil element that Johnson clubbed out of public life when Governor, every power that seeks to prey upon the people, again are raising their heads, and all are lined up against Johnson.

The sincere Hoover people find themselves in strange company. But the people of California will not forget the great accomplishments of Johnson in California. His Governmental reforms, which returned the control of the State to the people, his social legislation, his humanitarian laws, his business administration, his record without a whisper of scandal, need but to be mentioned to be vividly remembered. For the first time a man born in California, whose life has been lived within his native state, is the outstanding figure for the Presidency.

California cannot be bought. The people will never permit themselves to be used by the subtle emissaries of vested interests.

Californians, as a matter of pride, as a matter of tribute to the man who rendered such valiant services to his State, will overwhelmingly repudiate the forces aligned against Hiram W. Johnson.

MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT SHOWN IN SHORTRIDGE SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN

Samuel M. Shortridge, the popular candidate for the United States senatorship, is receiving encouraging letters from his admirers all over the state. Everywhere he is receiving letters offering support and aid in his candidacy. From the wilds of Siskiyou to the southern sands of San Diego come the glad tidings of his popularity and of the great sensation the announcement of his candidacy has caused. Mr. Shortridge is the most popular candidate that has ever aspired for office in the state of California. Mr. Shortridge deserves well at the hands of the Republican party, for he has done much for that organization in times gone by.

GORE'S TRIBUTE TO THE IRISH

Senator Gore's concluding remarks in the debate in the United States Senate on the declaration of sympathy with the Irish Republic should be incorporated in the text books in every public school in the United States. Many brilliant orations were delivered during that debate, but this gem is worth preserving where all school children in this Republic may read it and commit it to memory and declaim it on occasions innumerable in the years to come.

Said Senator Gore, the blind Senator of Oklahoma:

"Mr. President, the Irish have earned a better fate. In every cabinet where talent can win its way, will be found the resplendent genius of where liberty is allowed to plead her Irish statesmanship. In every forum where liberty is allowed to plead her

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

JOHN E. COWGILL, CORRESPONDENT

Dr. John G. Null, the first physician to establish himself in San Carlos, regardless of our healthful climate, has rendered himself more popular by delivering at the home of Fred T. Odgers the new school trustee a big gilr baby right on time. And this regardless of the cost of high living. This addition makes five children in the very interesting Odgers family, three girls and two boys and we shall expect the doctor to even matters up by delivering a boy next time.

Fred H. Drake and Fred W. Lippman have engaged in a friendly controversy as to Mr. Lippman's right to continue to use and keep enclosed that part of Arroyo avenue between Elm and Chestnut streets, which Mr. Lippman has been using as a corral and barn yard for the past thirty years without protest or objection from any citizen of San Carlos. Mr. Lippman basis his contention upon the right of possession, and he further contends, that if Mr. Drake and the Mercantile Trust company had the right to close Arroyo avenue from Chestnut to its intersection with Cypress avenue, a distance of four blocks, and make sale of the street to those purchasing property fronting on Arroyo avenue ,that he, Mr. Lippman, should be allowed to continue in possession of the avenue adjoining his property and which he has inherited from the people of San Carlos for the past quarter of a century. Both of these gentlemen are prominent in the politics and civic affairs of our little city and we expect the situation to develop into a very interesting settoo between the two Freds. Mr. Lippman is widely known throughout the county as the San Carlos representative of the Johnson for President Club and as a continuous candidate for the position as county treasurer against the popular incumbent P. P. Chamberlain. The first gun in the contest was fired when Mr. Drake with pickaxes, plyers and sledge hammers proceeded to remove the obstructions against the protests of Mrs. Lippman in the absence of Mr. Lippman at his place of business in Redwood last Monday afternoon, and which Mr. Lippman proceeded to reconstruct upon his return home the same evening. It will probably be referred to the District Attorney and Board of Supervisors for further action.

Mrs. Joseph Loeb of Stockton is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robt. J. Winter.

The active members of the National League of Postmasters under the direction of State President, Jno. E. Cowgill, San Carlos, and Mrs. Luella J. Matlack, state secretary and treasurer, Paynes Creek, have entered upon a campaign to organize the California branch to a 100 per cent membership by the time the national convention of the association convenes at Minneapolis in September of this year. In appreciation of the wonderful work the League has accomplished the past two years in the interests of postmasters it would appear that every postmaster in the state would respond promptly without the necessity of soliciting them either in person of by circular letter.

The defeat of the vicious amendment, known as Senate Amendment No. 8, is sufficient to secure the support of every second, third and fourth class postmaster in the whole country to the national league of postmasters and to every U. S. Senator and Congressman who lent their support and influence towards its defeat. Had this amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill passed; the language used in its construtcion was so broad and the power conferred upon the Postmaster General so unlimited that, if he so desired, he could have designated one postoffice in each state, or even one in each section of the country, as the main postoffice converting the balance of the postoffices into branch offices thus merging the smaller offices into one big office and obliterating the identity of the smaller towns and communities in so far as Uncle Sam's post offices are concerned.

Through the good offices of the national representatives of the league in their representations before the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads and before other members of Congress and the United States Senate they have secured to the postmasters a very liberal increase in salary ,the first conceded to the third and fourth class postmasters since 1883, and which they are now enjoying. Now that it has already been demonstrated what can be accomplished through organization for the postmasters in the matter of increased compensation, in the promotion of favorable legislation and in the defeat of legislation that is to their detriment, and which could not be taken care of without organization and representation at Washington, it is to be expected that all postmasters will fall into line and lend their moral and financial support to the only organization representing their interests. Postmasters reading this will please remit dues to Mrs. Luella J. Matlack at Paynes Creek, California. We desire to thank the Redwood Times-Gazette and the Mayfield News for the use of their columns in promoting the interests of the postmasters of the country.

Mrs. Mary Lane of San Francisco has purchased lots four and five, 100 x 155 feet on Elm street adjoining the Fred W. Lippman place and at the rear of the property recently sold to Mr. Ruggles a brother-in-law of Mrs. Lane.

Regular Meeting of Community Club

The regular monthly meeting of the San Carlos Community Club convened at 8 o'clock p. m., Wednesday the 14th, President John E. Cowgill in the chair.

By previous request Mr. Willis L. Hall, publisher of Palo Alto, was permitted to address the meeting respecting the new Redwood City directory which Mr. Hall and Mr. W. J. Biehl of Redwood City are compiling, and which will include San Carlos, Menlo Park, Woodside and La Honda the smaller communities closely adjacent and tributary to Redwood. Those present were very favorably impressed with the arrangement of this up-to-date directory and the part San Carlos will have in its arrangement. Messrs. Hall and Biehl should expect liberal support from all the communities who are to be served by such a conveniently arranged catalogue of the names and addresses of the residents and various officials and business included in it, as explained by Mr. Hall. Mr. Hall left it to the Club to suggest the name of a suitable person for he and Mr. Biehl to employ to collect the data for San Carlos. The secretary of the club, Miss May Quinn, was engaged for the work.

The committees on street improvement, sanitary district and property valuations reported progress.

Supervisor, Mrs. W. H. Brown being present, the president of the club in introducting Mrs. Brown to the club made it the occasion in a few brief remarks to pay a well deserved and glowing tribute to the memory of her husband, the late William H. Brown, who had impartially devoted so much of his time and effort to the interest and welfare of San Carlos, as he had to all other communities in the second township whose people he had served so faithfully and efficiently during the many years he had represented them on the board of supervisors of San Mateo county. Although visibly affected by the splendid tribute paid to her deceased husband Mrs. Brown gave a splendid talk in which she assured the people of San Carlos that they could depend upon her to make every effort possible to carry out the work of her late husband and to manifest the same interest in the welfare of our little city as had Mr. Brown. In thanking Mrs. Brown for having lent her presence to the meeting of the club and for her promise of continued support from the board of supervisors the president of the club assured Mrs. Brown that the people of San Carlos were back of her and that they would lend her every assistance within their power in helping her to make good as the only lady on the board of supervisors of San Mateo county.

The president of the club was instructed to draft a letter of strong protest against the iniquitous amendment to the Post Office Appropriation Bill which seeks to place it in the Postmaster General's power to make branch offices of all the offices in the state merging them into one or two big offices. The letter to be addressed to the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads in congress and the United States Senate and to the two California Senators and the members of congress from this district.

On motion of Vice-president F. H. Drake, the president was directed to draft a set of resolutions favoring the Dumbarton transbay bridge project and offering our support in every way possible toward the success of the movement.

Secretary Miss Quinn was instructed to write a letter to the superintendent of the Southern Pacific company asking that flag stops (f) sign be eliminated from the time-table for a number of the trains that are now indicated to stop at San Carlos only on flag and to substitute same with the signal to stop (s), as our population has increased to the extent that there are commuters for all of the trains designated, and San Carlos has developed beyond the stage that we are to be treated and considered a cow path or way station any longer.

E. A. STRAUSS GOES TO PRISON

On Tuesday afternoon E. A. Strauss with numerous aliases, was given an indeterminate sentence in San Quentin by Judge Buck. Strauss pleaded guilty to passing a fictitious check in Ohio some months ago. He told the court his life history when sentence was being passed. He said he was a native of Indianapolis, aged 26 years. His father was dead and he did not know the whereabouts of his mother whom he had not heard from in six months. At the age of sixteen he was before the juvenile court for embezzlement. He had passed about 60 checks receiving the sum of $3000. Some time ago he passed a check at Mayfield for a small sum. Two weeks ago he walked out of the county jail while acting as a trusty. He sped to Los Angeles and was there caught by the police of that city and brought back to jail by Will Hogan. Strauss said he received $35 just before leaving jail from outside sources. Strauss told the court that he always had confederates in his evil work and only secured a small amount of the "swag." He told the court that evil inspiration caused him to commit crime.

Jailer Hogan had the satisfaction on Wednesday in removing Strauss to San Quentin. The prisoner while at the jail here took advantage of the good nature of the jailer and escaped through a rear door. Hogan was determined after that to catch Strauss and place him where he belonged—San Quentin.

REDWOOD CITY WATERFRONT

The people of Redwood City are to be congratulated upon the result of the bond election held last Monday. The bonds carried by a vote of six to one. This result was attained by liberal advertising and a splendid co-operation by the people. The people generally were behind the issue, all working for the splendid result attained.

The San Francisco Bulletin of Wednesday afternoon pays Redwood City a neat tribute in the following editorial:

Redwood City is to be commended for its enterprise in voting a bond issue for a spur track to the waterfront, thereby complying with the condition required by the Government before it nudertakes to dredge a channel to the municipal wharf.

The opening of Redwood City port to the largest of coastwise steamers promises a new era in the development of the peninsula. It is a practical step in the direction of that cheaper transportation that is the immediate hope of better rewards for our primary producers. Redwood City is the geographical center of the peninsula, and with adequate rail and water-front facilities should progress by leaps and bounds.

There is no valid reason why the southern arm of San Francisco bay should remain a vast expanse of water unbroken by the movement of shipping that would add to the picturesqueness of Santa Clara valley.

JOHNSON HOPES TO DEFEAT STRONG MONEY INTERESTS

California is to be made the battleground of the nation for the Republican presidential nomination. The cry is "anything to beat Johnson."

With the winning of North Dakota, the victory in Minnesota, and his sweeping triumph in Michigan, he has become the formidable people's candidate, and with the Wisconsin delegation leaning toward him to be followed by Idaho with Borah leading, and then Iowa's group headed by Senators Cummins and Kenyon, Johnson is menacing.

Then come the primaries in Nebraska, Montana, New Jersey and Oregon, where the people again will have a voice.

Johnson's progress has nonplussed the other candidates, has frightened the tremendous moneyed interests backing them. In California they see their chance. If Johnson can be beaten there, or deflected from his campaign in other states, his march forward is halted.

No one takes the Hoover candidacy seriously, no authority in or out of politics concedes him even an outside chance for the Republican nomination. But he offers the means for an attempt to break Johnson. Already the Wood managers have whispered of the assistance to be rendered him. Rumors of the big sack to be opened in California are now rampant. Every disreputable force in politics, every evil element that Johnson clubbed out of public life when Governor, every power that seeks to prey upon the people, again are raising their heads, and all are lined up against Johnson.

The sincere Hoover people find themselves in strange company. But the people of California will not forget the great accomplishments of Johnson in California. His Governmental reforms, which returned the control of the State to the people, his social legislation, his humanitarian laws, his business administration, his record without a whisper of scandal, need but to be mentioned to be vividly remembered. For the first time a man born in California, whose life has been lived within his native state, is the outstanding figure for the Presidency.

California cannot be bought. The people will never permit themselves to be used by the subtle emissaries of vested interests.

Californians, as a matter of pride, as a matter of tribute to the man who rendered such valiant services to his State, will overwhelmingly repudiate the forces aligned against Hiram W. Johnson.

MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT SHOWN IN SHORTRIDGE SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN

Samuel M. Shortridge, the popular candidate for the United States senatorship, is receiving encouraging letters from his admirers all over the state. Everywhere he is receiving letters offering support and aid in his candidacy. From the wilds of Siskiyou to the southern sands of San Diego come the glad tidings of his popularity and of the great sensation the announcement of his candidacy has caused. Mr. Shortridge is the most popular candidate that has ever aspired for office in the state of California. Mr. Shortridge deserves well at the hands of the Republican party, for he has done much for that organization in times gone by.

GORE'S TRIBUTE TO THE IRISH

Senator Gore's concluding remarks in the debate in the United States Senate on the declaration of sympathy with the Irish Republic should be incorporated in the text books in every public school in the United States. Many brilliant orations were delivered during that debate, but this gem is worth preserving where all school children in this Republic may read it and commit it to memory and declaim it on occasions innumerable in the years to come.

Said Senator Gore, the blind Senator of Oklahoma:

"Mr. President, the Irish have earned a better fate. In every cabinet where talent can win its way, will be found the resplendent genius of where liberty is allowed to plead her Irish statesmanship. In every forum where liberty is allowed to plead her own cause has been heard the voice of Irish eloquence. Upon every field of battle where men have died for freedom, will be found the graves of Irish heroes. The Irish contributed their part to the liberty and independence of America. The Irish contributed their part to maintain this matchless union, which is the fairest ark of liberty that has ever sailed the seas of time. Mr. President, upon every battleship of liberty, the sons of Erin have held their rendezvous with death. When did it come to be a proof of demagogy to express sympathy in behalf of Irish liberation and in behalf of Irish independence?

"I hope that Great Britain may yet see her way to unrivet the chains upon the limbs of Ireland. As a friend of Irish freedom, I would rather see England strike off those bonds than to see those bonds burst asunder by revolution, by butchery and by bloodshed. But I hope that the sunburst of Irish freedom is even now flushing to the dawn. I hope that the time may yet come when the dying prayer of Robert Emmet may find its answer. I hope that the time may come when Robert Emmet's epitaph may be inscribed upon his tomb. I hope that the time may come when Ireland may, in accordance with Emmett's prayer, take her appointed place among the free nations of the earth."

MANY STUDENT FLYERS

The Redwood aviation school will open its spring term today with a big class of new students. Mon Suey, a young Chinese, arrived at the school yesterday from Stockton, having been sent here by the Chinese Nationalist League of that city. He is the first of six Chinese students due at the school from the various nationalist leagues of California.

The school is receiving many inquiries from prospective students from all parts of the country and is anticipating a busy season.

GEO. H. BUCK AND OTHERS WIN A BIG VICTORY

After listening to the evidence in the case of Mayzellia A. T. McCarthy against George W. Hall, C. F. McCarthy, Judge Buck, Archer Kincaid and the Bank of Italy for three days, Judge Koford on Wednesday very properly rendered a decision in favor of the defendants without leaving the bench after the case had been submitted to him. There was not a scintilla of evidence presented in any way to implicate the defendants.

Mrs. McCarthy alleged in her complaint that the defendants entered into a conspiracy to deprive her of her home in San Mateo, which was turned over to Hall as trustee for the McCarthys' son and later sold to the Bank of Italy. She asked $25,000 damages.

Walter H. Linforth appeared for Judge Buck, Matt I. Sullivan for Dr. McCarthy.

SUIT DISMISSED

The civil action entitled Abraham Cohen against Fannie Cahen, and others, was dismissed during the week. The notice of dismissal was filed in the county clerk's office on Thursday.

E. A. STRAUSS GOES TO PRISON

On Tuesday afternoon E. A. Strauss with numerous aliases, was given an indeterminate sentence in San Quentin by Judge Buck. Strauss pleaded guilty to passing a fictitious check in Ohio some months ago. He told the court his life history when sentence was being passed. He said he was a native of Indianapolis, aged 26 years. His father was dead and he did not know the whereabouts of his mother whom he had not heard from in six months. At the age of sixteen he was before the juvenile court for embezzlement. He had passed about 60 checks receiving the sum of $3000. Some time ago he passed a check at Mayfield for a small sum. Two weeks ago he walked out of the county jail while acting as a trusty. He sped to Los Angeles and was there caught by the police of that city and brought back to jail by Will Hogan. Strauss said he received $35 just before leaving jail from outside sources. Strauss told the court that he always had confederates in his evil work and only secured a small amount of the "swag." He told the court that evil inspiration caused him to commit crime.

Jailer Hogan had the satisfaction on Wednesday in removing Strauss to San Quentin. The prisoner while at the jail here took advantage of the good nature of the jailer and escaped through a rear door. Hogan was determined after that to catch Strauss and place him where he belonged—San Quentin.

CANVASS FOR DIRECTORY TO BEGIN IN FEW DAYS

Plans for the new Redwood City directory have advanced to a stage of collecting the names, which will start in a few days. W. J. Biehl, secretary of the Merchants' Association, has secured considerable patronage for the book. The detail work of collecting and arranging the names and superintending the publication would require more time than he could devote to the work, so he has secured the co-operation of Willis L. Hall of Palo Alto, who will complete the work for him. Hall has published the Palo Alto city directory for the last six years.

It is planned to condense the general information at the beginning of the book, insert a street directory, then the business directory. After that will come the list of names of people and concerns in Redwood City, San Carlos, Atherton, Menlo Park and Woodside. Each town will be given a separate heading.

All heads of families are requested to make out lists of people in their households, including all persons 18 years of age or over. This will save time on the part of both the housewife and canvasser. The information desired is the name with initials, business address, occupation and residence address.

The book will be printed in Redwood City and the canvassing done by Redwood City folks, as both Mr. Biehl and Mr. Hall believe that for a local enterprise of this kind all the money expended for the production should be distributed among the people paying for the book. It is expected the directory will be ready some time next month.

People who have not subscribed for copies must do so at once. The edition will be limited to actual requirements. In experience Mr. Hall has found it is losing money to produce any considerable number of extra copies, as the demand can be ascertained almost to a certainty in advance. Still there are some who think they will wait and see what the book is before deciding. They will be disappointed, as there will not be any extra copies available for those who do not order. The price of the directory will be $6. Orders will be taken by the canvassers when calling for names, so be ready with both names and orders.

CASE TO BE APPEALED

The damage suit of Carolinda Noce and her minor children against the United Railroads is to be appealed to the supreme court. Plaintiffs some weeks ago secured a judgment agesagainst the company for $50,000 damages for the death of David Noce, husband and father of the above named plaintiffs. The deceased was killed in a collision with one of the cars of the company at Daly City. A jury in the superior court of this county awarded the damages. This week Judge Buck cut the amount to $25,000. The plaintiffs accepted the cut and were willing to accept the amount but the defendant gave notice of appeal and so the whole case will be threshed out in the higher tribunal

SECOND MUSICAL CONTEST

Hazel Cobin's pupils have had their second musical contest. There were 20 present at the contest. Lillian Armstrong and Essie Arp were the winners of the first prize for perfect time. The second prize was carried off by Goldie and Evelyn Meyer of Woodside. Pearl Beir was the winner of the third prize and Isabella Nelson the fourth. Others who displayed considerable musical talent but who did not enter the contest were Gladys Erich, Clara Nelson, Calvin Merz, Teddy Arp and Lorraine Becker.

FINAL DECREES GRANTED

Judge Buck has granted a final decree of divorce to May Roth from her husband, George Roth. The interlocutory decree of divorce was granted on December 13, 1918 on the ground of extreme cruelty. The court also granted a final decree to Hazel Lopez from her husband, Albert Lopez. The interlocutory decree was granted on April 2, 1919 on the ground of desertion. The plaintiff was permitted by this decree to resume her maiden name of Hazel Newell.

SUIT COMMENCED FOR DAMAGES

The suit commenced in the superior court of San Francisco on January 9, 1920, entitled "Jappe Thompson against Delia Mohr and J. Clark," has been transferred to the superior court of this county for trial. The plaintiff brings the action to recover damages in the sum of $5,851.50 for personal injuries in being knocked down by an automobile driven by Clark at Daly City on July 11, last. Swart and Lyon are the attorneys for plaintiff.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

The last will and testament of Horatio King, who died at Menlo Heights on April 2, was filed for probate in the superior court at Redwood City on Thursday, by Norman E. Malcolm, the well known Palo Alto attorney, who represents the estate. Mr. King recently came here from Los Angeles and purchased the W. T. Thompson place at Menlo Heights. The estate is valued at $30,000. It consists of farming land at Saskatchewan, Canada, worth $18,000, property in San Francisco valued at $6,000, personal property valued at $8,500.

The deceased executed the will on February 21, 1920. Jennie King and her son, Roy King, are named as executors, who are to act as trustees to sell the Canada property for the benefit of the other children. By the terms of the will Roy King is to get $4,000, Helen King $3,000, Ivy Perry $3,000, Garnet King $4,000, Mabel Williams $1,000, Hayden King $500. These are all the children of the deceased. A sister residing in Chicago, Carry McLean, is bequeathed the sum of $1,000. The rest and residue is left to the widow.

Henry Agard was up here from Merced county on Monday to enjoy a few days' vacation with his parents. He was given a birthday surprise party on Monday night at the parish house of Trinity Episcopal church by his young friends, numbering 30. After a sumptuous dinner the young people repaired to the parish hall, where dancing ,singing and games were indulged in until a late hour. Young Agard is superintendent of one of the divisions of the large holdings of Lux and Miller in the San Joaquin valley. He lives at Dos Palos and is in charge of the Santa Rita ranch, comprising thousands of acres of land and many thousands of cattle.

F. L. Suhr of San Francisco, importer of furs, has just purchased through Mark A. McCann a two-acre improved place in the Linda Vista tract. He intends to improve the same and make it his home.

J. H. Sullivan has started the second road through Atherton Acres, owned by him and located on Atherton avenue, all of the property on the first road having been sold.

One of the prettiest weddings of the Easter season took place in the beautifully decorated parlors of the parochial residence of Father W. P. Sullivan on Wednesday evening, when Donald Derry, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Derry, was united in marriage to Miss Viola Woodhams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Woodhams of Beresford. The impressive ceremony was performed by Father J. B. Hannigan, assisted by Father W. P. Sullivan. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties witnessed the wedding and they numbered about 65. After the ceremony all repaired to the home of Mr. Derry's parents, where the reception and dinner were held.

The bride and groom were heartily congratulated by their numerous friends. About 70 guests sat at the banquet table, where all the delicacies of the season confronted them. Father Sullivan and Father Hannigan both made speeches congratulating the young couple. During the dinner the young couple slipped away to catch the Lark at Palo Alto for Los Angeles to spend the honeymoon. On their return they will occupy their pretty cottage on Buckingham avenue, North Fair Oaks, which the groom has prepared for his pretty bride. Donald Derry is an exemplary young man. He has spent his whole life in Menlo Park, where he is admired for his manly qualities. He is secretary of Menlo Parlor, N. S. G. W., and is also a member of the Knights of Columbusin San Mateo. Mr. Derry during the war was a gun pointer on one of Uncle Sam's big ships. He assisted in convoying thousands of soldiers across to the battlefields of France. He spent a short time in Germany before the war ended. The beautiful bride was born in La Honda, where her father was also born. She is a most estimable young lady, possessing unusual beauty and charm, and has a host of friends on the peninsula, where she is very popular. The young couple has the best wishes of their numerous friends for a happy and prosperous wedded rife.

By actual observation of the reporters to this paper on the apricot crop for this season in San Mateo and Santa Clara counties, it is a fact fact that the product this year indicates only 65 per cent of normal. The long drought ,from December to the middle of March, with extreme cold nights and days, left the winter nourishment of the trees dead. When the rains finally did come in the latter part of March, this was all that saved the orchards from ruin. All over the state, except Solano county, which has a 100 per cent showing, indications are the same. The Hopkins orchard, the C. W. Smith orchard and others in this vicinity as well as in Santa Clara county, show the same condition—so this year we will not have all the 'cots we would wish to enjoy, eating.
